

La procuradora general Lisa Madigan

Guía de compras seguras 2007
Retiros de productos de niños

Un mensaje de la procuradora general de Illinois Lisa Madigan

Con la temporada de las fiestas navideñas, muchas personas del estado de Illinois estarán comprando regalos para familiares y amistades. Pero, este año padres y otros consumidores que vayan a comprar regalos para niños se encontrarán en tiendas de juguetes preguntándose cuales serán seguros.

En el año 2007, se retiraron muchos juguetes y prendas de niños del mercado. Desde enero, centenares de diferentes juguetes y prendas - con un total de más de 37 millones de unidades - se retiraron del mercado. Adicionalmente, se retiraron más de veinte productos duraderos juveniles, incluyendo artículos como cunas y asientos de carros, y varias prendas de ropa.

Se pueden hacer retiros por varias razones, algunas partes se pueden separar y poner en peligro de ahogarse, juguetes tienen una capa de pintura de plomo. No importando las razones de los retiros, es importante quitarle los productos peligrosos a los niños inmediatamente.

Porque en particular los niños son vulnerables a los peligros de productos de consumidores; consumidores que vayan a comprar regalos para niños tienen toda la razón de estar preocupados de la seguridad. La situación ideal es de evitar que productos peligrosos lleguen a los niños. Por esta misma razón, según con el Acto de Productos de Seguridad de los Niños, mi oficina, requiere que comerciantes de Illinois retiren productos peligrosos de los estantes de almacenes y que fijen las notificaciones en una localidad prominente. Aunque estas medidas pueden ayudar en mantener los productos peligrosos fuera de las manos de consumidores, no son infalibles.

Para ayudarles a los consumidores que compren con confianza y para asegurar que los productos peligrosos se mantengan fuera de los niños, mi oficina desarrolló el Guía de Compras Seguras, que provee una fotografía y descripción breve de cada uno de los productos retirados en el 2007 hasta la fecha de publicación. El Guía de Compras Seguras está separado en cinco partes para referencia fácil: juguetes, prendas de niñas, productos durables juveniles, ropa de niños, y ATV's y bicicletas.

Espero que usted lleve este Guía cuando esté de compras y que lo revise antes de hacer su compra. También lo puede usar para revisar los regalos que reciban sus hijos de familiares y amistades. Al tomar este paso sencillo, usted puede asegurar la seguridad de los regalos de sus hijos.

Les deseo a ustedes y a su familia una feliz y segura temporada.

Lisa Madigan
Procuradora General

¿Qué puedo hacer para mantener a mis hijos seguros de productos peligrosos?

1. Regístrese para notificaciones por correo de los productos retirados.
2. Revise la página de la red de la Comisión de Productos Seguros del Consumidor para productos retirados de niños: www.cpsc.gov.
3. Llame a la línea roja de productos retirados de la oficina de la procuraduría al 1-888-414-7678 si tiene alguna pregunta o si ve un producto retirado que se está vendiendo en el mercado.

Contenido

I. Juguetes

- a. Prendas
- b. Productos durables juveniles
(como cunas y asientos de seguridad de carro)
- c. Ropa
- d. ATV's y bicicletas

II. Guía de recursos

2007
Children's Product Recalls

Toys

Toys

The following is a list of toy recalls issued between January 1, 2007 and November 21, 2007.

Bright Starts Teethers Recalled on January 17, 2007.

The flexible plastic ring that holds the teether beads in place can crack or break allowing the beads to detach, posing a choking hazard to infants. The teethers were sold at discount department stores and juvenile specialty stores nationwide from June 2006 to January 2007.

Baby Rattles and Ornaments Recalled on January 18, 2007.

The small parts on the plush rattles and the frame ornaments can break or detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. Additionally, the rattles' plastic ring can break and expose sharp points. The rattles and ornaments were sold at Target stores from November 2006 to December 2006.

MagneBlocks Toys Recalled on January 18, 2007.

Tiny, powerful magnets inside the building pieces can fall out. If more than one is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The toy was sold at discount department stores, toy stores and arts and crafts stores nationwide from January 2004 to November 2006.

Easy Bake Ovens Recalled on February 6, 2007, with an expanded recall issued on July 19, 2007.

Young children can insert their hands into the oven's opening and get their hands or fingers caught in the oven's opening, which can result in serious burns. At least one child had her finger partially amputated. The toy was sold at Toys R Us, Wal-Mart, Target, KB Toys and other retailers nationwide from May 2006 to February 2007.

JAKKS Pacific Toy Vehicles Recalled on February 13, 2007.

The batteries in the toy vehicles can ignite while charging, posing a fire hazard. The toys were sold at toy stores, discount department stores and internet retailers nationwide from August 2006 to January 2007.

Fisher Price "Laugh and Learn" Bunny Toys Recalled on February 15, 2007.

The pink pom-pom nose can detach and pose a choking hazard for young children. The toy was sold at discount department stores and toy stores nationwide from May 2006 to December 2006.

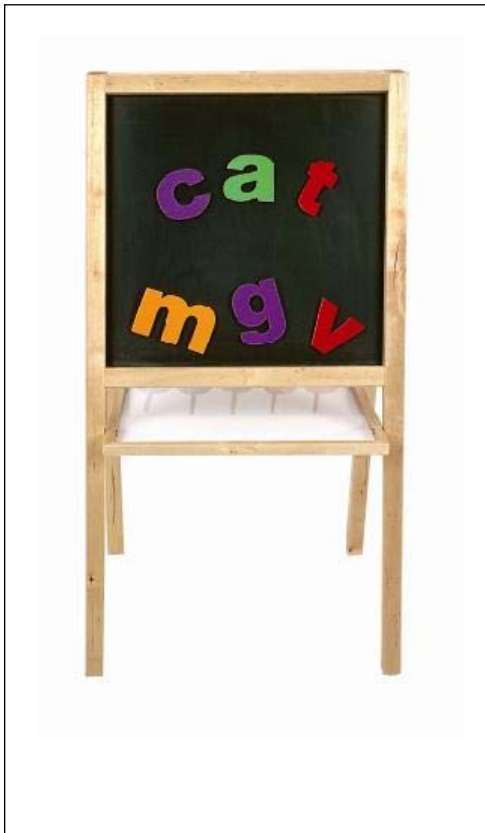

Link-N-Lite Magnetic Light-Up Puzzles Recalled on February 15, 2007.

Tiny, powerful magnets inside the puzzle pieces can fall out. If more than one is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The toy was sold at Target and Kohl's stores nationwide and on Amazon.com from June 2006 to January 2007.

Sportcraft Inflatable Bounce Houses Recalled on February 27, 2007.

The fan and the plastic housing surrounding the fan can break apart during use of the inflatable bounce house, posing a risk of impact injury to consumers. The items were sold at Academy Sports and Outdoor and Sport Chalet nationwide from September 2006 to January 2007.

Two-Sided Easels Recalled on March 7, 2007.

The paint on the chalkboard side of the easels contains high levels of lead. The easels were sold through Discount School Supply catalogues and website from July 2004 to November 2006.

Children's Stationary Set Recalled on March 13, 2007.

The stationary set contains a razor blade cutter with a sharp edge, posing a laceration hazard to young children. The sets were sold at Dollar Stores in northern California from January 2005 to March 2007.

“Elite Operations” Toy Sets Recalled on March 13, 2007.

The toys contain high levels of lead, and have sharp points that pose a laceration hazard. The toy sets were sold at Toys R Us nationwide from January 2006 to February 2007.

Estes-Cox Radio Control Airplanes Recalled on March 27, 2007.

The airplanes can overheat while recharging, posing a fire hazard. The Sky Squadron Airplane was sold at Radio Shack nationwide from December 2006 to February 2007. The Sky Ranger Airplane was sold at Wal-Mart nationwide from January 2007 to February 2007.

Stuffed Ball Toys Recalled on March 28, 2007.

The paint on the toys contains high levels of lead. The toys were sold at Dollar Stores nationwide from June 2006 to March 2007.

Baby Dolls Recalled on April 4, 2007.

The "Lovely Baby" and "Happy Baby" dolls contain small parts, which can detach and pose a choking hazard to young children. The dolls were sold at Dollar Stores nationwide from September 2006 to October 2006.

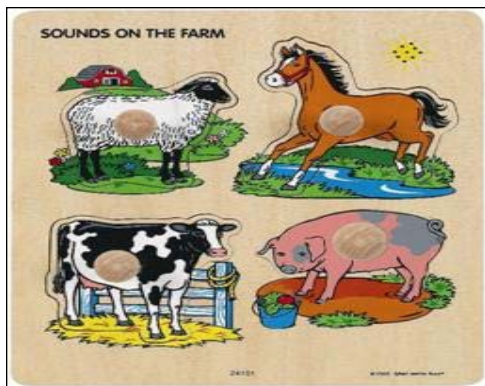

Activity Carts Toys Recalled on April 4, 2007.

The orange hubcaps on the wheels of the Little Tree Wood Activity Carts can detach and pose a choking hazard to young children. The toys were sold at Target stores nationwide from July 2006 to March 2007, and on Target.com from October 2006 to February 2007.

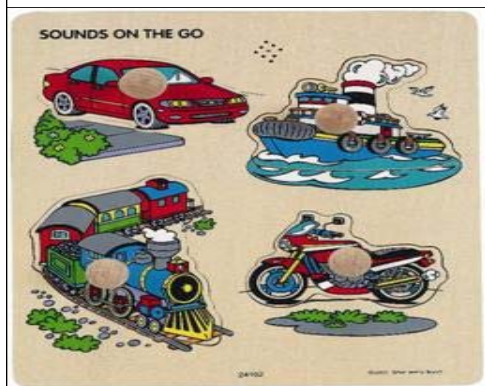

Disney Plush Easter Baskets Recalled on April 5, 2007.

The silver beads and ribbons attached to the basket can detach and pose a choking hazard. The baskets were sold at Wal-Mart nationwide from February 2007 to March 2007.

Small World Puzzles Recalled on April 11, 2007.

The knobs on the puzzles can come off and pose a choking hazard. The "Sounds on the Farm" and "Sounds on the Go" puzzles were sold under the Puzzibilities and Ryan's Room brands. Puzzibilities puzzles were sold at toy stores and various retailers nationwide from June 2003 to February 2007. Ryan's Room puzzles were sold at Target stores nationwide from January 2006 to February 2007.

Shrek Headbands Recalled on April 17, 2007.

A small wire can protrude through the fabric of the ears on the headbands, and can cause cuts. The headbands were distributed as a giveaway to Pepsi employees from February 23, 2007 to April 1, 2007.

Magnetix Magnetic Building Sets Recalled on March 31, 2006 with an expanded recall issued on April 19, 2007.

Tiny, powerful magnets inside the building sets can fall out. If more than one is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The toy was sold at mass merchants and other toy and arts and crafts stores nationwide from September 2003 through March 2006.

Anima Bamboo Collection Games Recalled on May 2, 2007.

The toys in the game sets are covered in paint that contains high levels of lead. The games were sold at Target stores nationwide from December 2006 to April 2007.

Soft Blocks Tower Toys on Graco Baby Einstein Discover and Play Activity Centers Recalled on May 2, 2007.

The plastic covering on the soft block towers can detach and pose a choking hazard to infants. The toys were sold at Army and Air Force Exchange Services, Babies R Us, Toys R Us, Meijer, Shopko, Target and various other retailers nationwide, and on Wal-Mart.com and Target.com from February 2005 to December 2005.

Parents Magazine Record-A-Voice Toy Cell Phones Recalled on May 3, 2007.

The metal pin inside the hinge of the cell phone flip-top can fall out, posing a choking hazard to young children. The toys were sold at Target stores nationwide from September 2006 to January 2007.

IQ Preschool Take Apart Townhouses Recalled on May 3, 2007.

Tiny, powerful magnets used to connect the wooden pieces to the sides of the townhouse can fall out. If more than one is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The toy was sold at various toy stores and other retailers from December 2004 to February 2007.

Baby Buddy Clip-On Books Recalled on May 17, 2007.

The metal clip used to attach the book to a stroller or article of clothing can break, posing a choking hazard to children. The item was sold through Bookspan mail order catalogues, and Bookspan.com from September 2006 to March 2007.

Discovery Bunny Books Recalled on May 17, 2007.

The seam on the bunny's left hind leg can open exposing a plastic squeaker toy contained inside a cloth bag, posing a choking hazard to young children. The item was sold through Bookspan mail order catalogues, and Bookspan.com from February 2006 to March 2007.

Ball Rattles, Wrist Rattles and Wind-up Toys Recalled on May 23, 2007

The toys contain small parts that pose a choking hazard to young children. The toys were sold at Dollar Stores in California from January 2005 through May 2007.

“Soldier Bear” Toy Sets Recalled on May 23, 2007.

The toy action figures are covered in paint that contains high amounts of lead. The sets were sold at Army and Air Force Exchange Services from August 2006 to April 2007.

Toy Drums Recalled on May 30, 2007.

The red paint on the drums contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at gift and collectible stores nationwide from June 2005 to April 2007.

Flashing Eyeball Toys Recalled on June 7, 2007.

The plastic eyeball contains kerosene, which if broken, presents a chemical hazard to children. The toys were sold at toy and novelty stores during July 2006.

Wooden Thomas and Friends Toys Recalled on June 13, 2007

The surface paint on the wooden toys contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at toy stores and various retailers nationwide from January 2005 to June 2007.

Toy Barbeque Grills Recalled on June 28, 2007.

The circular ashtray attached to the stainless steel legs of the grill could contain sharp edges, posing a laceration hazard. The toy was sold at Target stores nationwide from December 2006 to February 2007.

Shape Sorting Toy Castles Recalled on July 3, 2007.

The plastic rod can come loose allowing the colored counting beads to slide off of the toy, posing a choking hazard to young children. The toy was sold at Wal-Mart, Target, Marshalls, Meijers and other specialty toy retailers nationwide from January 2006 to May 2007.

Mag Stix Magnetic Building Sets Recalled on July 5, 2007.

Tiny, powerful magnets inside the plastic sticks can fall out. If more than one is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The toy was sold at Kipp Brothers' showroom, Fall 2005 catalog and website from September 2005 to March 2006.

Remote Control Airplanes Recalled on July 24, 2007.

The airplanes are launched by hand and can explode near the consumer's head, posing a risk of temporary hearing loss and injuries to eyes, face and hands. The airplanes were sold at hobby stores and other retailers nationwide from September 2005 to December 2006.

“Soldier Bear” Toy Sets Recalled on July 18, 2007.

Surface paints on the toy action figures, dinosaurs and animals contain high amounts of lead. The sets were sold at Army and Air Force Exchange Services from August 2005 to April 2007.

“Soldier Bear” Toy Sets Recalled on July 18, 2007.

Surface paints on the toy action figures, dinosaurs and animals contain high amounts of lead. The sets were sold at Army and Air Force Exchange Services from August 2005 to April 2007.

Magnetic Toy Train Sets Recalled on August 21, 2007.

The paint on the trains contains high amounts of lead. The trains were sold at Johnson Smith Company, The Paragon Gifts, Inc., and Starcrest Products of California catalogues nationwide from December 2006 to July 2007.

Pacifiers Decorated with Crystals Recalled on July 26, 2007.

These pacifiers fail to meet federal safety standards for pacifiers. The crystals can separate easily, posing an aspiration and ingestion hazard to young children. The pacifiers were sold online at ebay.com and etsy.com in 2006 and 2007.

Sarge Toys Recalled on August 14, 2007.

Surface paints on the toys contain high amounts of lead. The toy was sold at retail stores from May 2007 to August 2007.

Fisher Price Toys Recalled on August 2, 2007.

The surface paints on the toys, which include toys based on characters such as Sesame Street, Dora the Explorer and Elmo, contain high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at retail stores nationwide from May 2007 to August 2007.

Continued on next page.

Fisher Price Toys Recalled on August 2, 2007.

The surface paints on the toys, which include toys based on characters such as Sesame Street, Dora the Explorer and Elmo, contain high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at retail stores nationwide from May 2007 to August 2007.

Toys Sold with Sleeping Bags Recalled on August 3, 2007.

The plastic button eyes on the stuffed horse and the pompom nose on the fairy doll can easily detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The toys were sold in the Orvis Company mail order catalogue and the firm's website from September 2006 to December 2006.

Batman and One Piece Magnetic Action Figures Sets Recalled on August 14, 2007.

Tiny, powerful magnets inside the accessories of the toy figures can fall out. If more than one is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The toy was sold at discount department stores and toy stores nationwide from June 2006 to June 2007.

Barbie and Tanner Magnetic Toys Recalled on August 14, 2007.

Tiny, powerful magnets inside the "scooper" accessory can fall out. If more than one is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The toys were sold at toy stores and various retailers nationwide from May 2006 to August 2007.

Doggie Day Care Magnetic Toys Recalled on August 14, 2007.

Tiny, powerful magnets inside the toys can fall out. If more than one is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The toys were sold at toy stores and various retailers nationwide from July 2004 to August 2007.

Polly Pocket Play Sets Recalled on November 21, 2006 and expanded on August 14, 2007.

Tiny, powerful magnets inside the dolls and accessories can fall out. If more than one is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The toy was sold at toy stores and various retailers from May 2003 to November 2006.

Continued on next page.

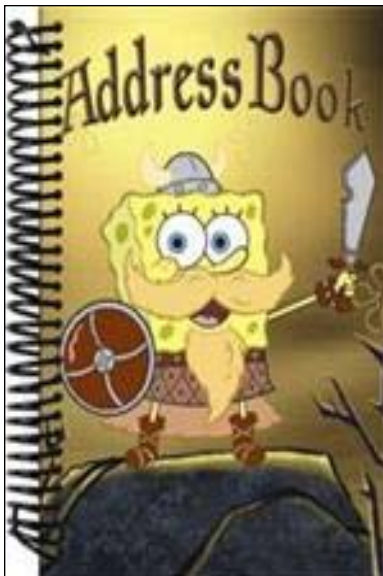

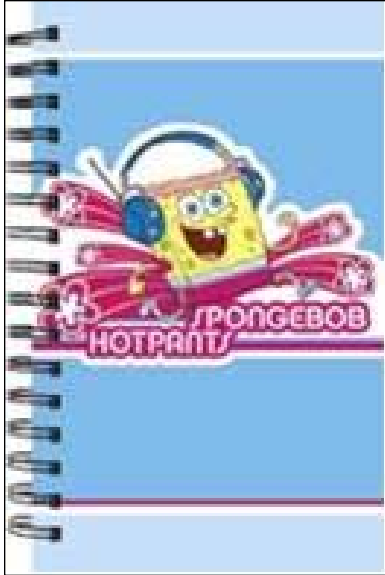

Polly Pocket Play Sets Recalled on November 21, 2006 and expanded on August 14, 2007.

Tiny, powerful magnets inside the dolls and accessories can fall out. If more than one is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The toy was sold at toy stores and various retailers from May 2003 to November 2006.

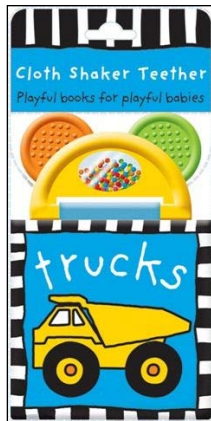

Thomas and Friends, Curious George and Other Spinning Tops and Tin Pails Recalled on August 22, 2007.

The paint on the wooden handles of the tops and the pails contain high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at specialty toy stores and gift shops nationwide from July 2001 to September 2002.

SpongeBob Squarepants Address Books and Journals Recalled on August 22, 2007.

The paint on the metal spiral bindings of the address book and journals contains high amounts of lead. The books and journals were sold at retail stores nationwide from June 2006 to July 2007.

Teether Books Recalled on August 23, 2007.

Small pieces of the teether can break off, posing a choking hazard to young children. The books were sold at Barnes and Noble and other bookstores and retailers from January 2006 to June 2007.

Children's Watering Cans Recalled on August 28, 2007.

The beak of the watering can contains high amounts of lead. The toy was sold at Jo-Ann Fabric and Craft Stores nationwide from February 2007 to August 2007.

Wooden Coloring Cases Recalled on August 30, 2007.

The printed ink on the outer packaging of the wood case contains high amounts of lead. The cases were sold at Toys R Us nationwide from October 2006 to August 2007.

Barbie Accessory Toys Recalled on September 4, 2007.

Surface paint on the toys contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at retail stores nationwide from October 2006 to August 2007.

Geo Trax Locomotive Toys Recalled on September 4, 2007.

The surface paint on the toys contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at retail stores nationwide from September 2006 to August 2007.

Bongo Band Toys Recalled on September 4, 2007.

Surface paint on the toys contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at retail stores nationwide from July 2007 to August 2007.

Thomas and Friends Wooden Toys Recalled on September 26, 2007.

Surface paint on the toys contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at toy stores and various retailers nationwide from March 2003 to September 2007.

Toy Gardening Tools and Children's Chairs Recalled on September 26, 2007.

The surface paint on the Happy Giddy Gardening Tools and the Children's Sunny Patch Chairs contains high levels of lead. Both items were sold at Target stores nationwide from August 2006 to August 2007.

Knights of the Sword Toys Recalled on September 26, 2007.

Surface paint on the toy knights contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at specialty toy stores nationwide from April 2004 to March 2006.

Toy Rakes Recalled on September 26, 2007.

Surface paint on the handle of the rakes contains high amounts of lead. The rakes were sold at Jo-Ann Fabric and Craft stores nationwide from January 2007 to September 2007.

Children's Puppet Theaters Recalled on September 26, 2007.

Surface paint on the puppet theater's wooden panels contains high levels of lead. The items were sold at specialty toy stores, gift shops, catalogs and websites nationwide from June 2006 to August 2007.

Doll Strollers Recalled on September 28, 2007.

A child's finger can become caught in the rectangular metal clip or the black plastic side hinge, and this can sever a child's finger tip. Also, the strollers pose an entrapment hazard. The toy was sold at Pottery Barn Kids stores nationwide from October 2005 to June 2007.

Model Rockets Recalled on September 28, 2007.

The model rocket's side or engine retainer ring can separate and cause the rocket to fall without the nose cone separating and the parachute deploying, posing a risk of an impact injury to nearby individuals. The rockets were sold at hobby stores and other retailers nationwide from June 2005 to July 2007.

Plush Boys Rattles Recalled on October 2, 2007

The rattles can break open releasing small beads inside, posing a choking hazard to young children. The rattles were sold at Target stores nationwide from March 2007 to May 2007.

Wooden Toys Recalled on October 4, 2007.

The surface paint on the toys contains high amounts of lead. All toys were sold at KB Toy Stores nationwide. The Pull-Along Wagons were sold from August 2005 to August 2007. The 10-in-1 Activity Learning Carts were sold from August 2006 to September 2007. The Flip-Flop Alphabet Blocks were sold from August 2006 to September 2007.

Baby Einstein Discover & Play Color Blocks Recalled on October 4, 2007.

Surface paint on the blue block contains high amounts of lead. The blocks were sold at various retailers and specialty stores nationwide from June 2007 to September 2007.

"Pirates of the Caribbean" Squeeze Flashlights Recalled on October 4, 2007.

Surface paint on the leather strap attached to the medallion squeeze light contains high amounts of lead. The flashlights were sold at various retail stores and websites nationwide from September 2006 to October 2007.

Children's Decorating Sets Recalled on October 4, 2007.

Surface paint on the back of the mirror contains high amounts of lead. The sets were sold at Toys R Us nationwide from May 2007 to September 2007.

KiDnastics Balance Beams Recalled on October 11, 2007.

Surface paint on the balance beam contains high amounts of lead. The balance beams were sold in various catalogs and websites from January 2007 to September 2007.

Bendable Dinosaur Toys Recalled on October 11, 2007.

The toys contain high amounts of lead. They were sold at the Kipps Brothers' Showroom, catalog and website from October 2006 to August 2007.

Travel Art Sets Recalled on October 11, 2007.

The surface paint on the zipper pull of the lap desk contains high amounts of lead. The sets were sold at Cracker Barrel Old Country Stores nationwide from April 2007 to August 2007.

Winnie the Pooh Play Sets Recalled on October 11, 2007.

Surface paint on the play sets contains high amounts of lead. The sets were sold through the J.C. Penney catalog, website and outlet stores nationwide from August 2005 to August 2007.

Breyer Stirrup Ornaments Recalled on October 11, 2007.

Surface paint on the ornaments contains high amounts of lead. The ornaments were sold through the J.C. Penney catalog and website from August 2006 to August 2007.

Deluxe Art Sets Recalled on October 11, 2007.

Surface paint on the outside of the wooden box contains high amounts of lead. The sets were sold through the J.C. Penney catalog and website from September 2005 to August 2007.

Dunkin' Donuts Glow Sticks Recalled on October 17, 2007.

The glow sticks are not properly labeled to warn consumers that the cap and lanyard can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. Additionally, the lanyard poses a strangulation hazard. The glow sticks were given away at Dunkin' Donuts with a purchase of donuts from September 2007 to October 2007.

Children's Puppet Theaters Recalled on October 17, 2007.

Surface paint on the theater's wooden panels contains high amounts of lead. The theaters were sold in specialty toy stores, gift shops, catalogs and websites nationwide from June 2006 to August 2007.

Halloween Skull Pails Recalled on October 17, 2007.

The surface paint on the eyes, nose and teeth of the skull contains high amounts of lead. The pails were sold at retail stores nationwide from September 2007 to October 2007.

Toy Swords Recalled on October 18, 2007.

The swords can break, creating a sharp point, which poses a laceration hazard to consumers. The swords were sold at Gymboree stores nationwide from August 2007 to September 2007.

Game Pieces Sold with "Cars" Backpacks Recalled on October 23, 2007.

Tiny, powerful magnets inside the four game pieces can fall out. If more than one is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The toy was sold at Target stores nationwide from February 2007 to September 2007.

"Go Diego Go" Boat Toys Recalled on October 25, 2007.

Surface paint on the toys contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at retail stores nationwide from June 2007 to October 2007.

Children's Toy Garden Tools Recalled on October 25, 2007.

Surface paint on the handle of the toy gardening tools contains high amounts of lead. The tools were sold at Jo-Ann Fabric and Craft stores nationwide from January 2007 to September 2007.

Halloween Pails Recalled on October 25, 2007.

The green paint on the pails contains high amounts of lead. The pails were sold at Family Dollar Stores nationwide from August 2007 to October 2007.

Rabbit Board Games Recalled on October 31, 2007.

Surface paint on the five frog-shaped wooden pieces contains high amounts of lead. The games were sold by SimplyFun independent consultants nationwide from March 2007 to October 2007.

Halloween "Ugly Teeth" Recalled on October 31, 2007.

The surface paint on the teeth contains high amounts of lead. The teeth were sold at various retailers nationwide from January 2006 to October 2007.

Elite Operations Toys Recalled on October 31, 2007.

Surface coatings on the toys contain high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at Toys R Us stores nationwide from July 2007 to October 2007.

Galaxy Warriors Toy Figures Recalled on October 31, 2007.

Surface paint on the toys contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at Family Dollar Stores nationwide from January 2006 to October 2007.

Pearl-like Attachment Sold with Girl's Gift Sets Recalled on November 1, 2007.

The surface coating on a plastic bead decorative packaging attachment contains high amounts of lead. The sets were sold at Limited Too stores, and in the catalog and website, nationwide from April 2007 to September 2007.

Laugh and Learn Kitchen Toys Recalled on November 6, 2007.

Pieces of the faucet or the clock hands can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The toys were sold at various retail and specialty stores nationwide from May 2007 to October 2007.

"Skippy" Pool Toys Recalled on November 6, 2007.

The elastic tongue of the fish can break and forcefully come out and cut the users' hands during launching of the toy. The toys were sold at mass merchandisers and independent pool supply stores nationwide from February 2007 to September 2007.

"Big Red" Wagons Recalled on November 7, 2007.

Surface paint on the wagon and the handle contains high amounts of lead. The wagons were sold through the Northern Tool and Equipment catalog, website, and retail stores nationwide from July 2007 to September 2007.

Toy Dragster and Funny Car Recalled on November 7, 2007.

Surface paint on the wheels and engine of the toys contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at National Hot Rod Association events through Schumacher Racing, and Matco Tools through door to door sales by its representatives from March 2007 to September 2007.

Toy Cars Recalled on November 7, 2007.

Surface paint on the cars contains high amounts of lead. The cars were sold at Dollar General stores nationwide from April 2007 to October 2007.

Duck Family Collectable Toys Recalled on November 7, 2007.

Surface paint on the ducks contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at specialty toy stores and gift shops nationwide from January 2007 to August 2007.

Spinning Tops Recalled on November 7, 2007.

Surface paint on the wooden handle of the top contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at specialty toy stores and gift shops nationwide from April 2003 to November 2003.

Dizzy Ducks Music Box Recalled on November 7, 2007.

The surface paint on the wooden base of the music box contains high amounts of lead. The music boxes were sold at specialty toy stores and gift shops nationwide from March 2007 to October 2007.

Toy Robot Recalled on November 7, 2007.

Surface paint on the robot contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at specialty toy stores and gift shops nationwide from October 2006 to September 2007.

Aqua Dots Recalled on November 7, 2007.

The coating on the beads that causes the beads to stick to each other when water is added contains a chemical that can turn toxic when many are ingested. Children who swallow the beads can become comatose, develop respiratory depression or have seizures. Aqua Dots were sold at mass merchandisers nationwide from April 2007 to November 2007.

Curious George Plush Dolls Recalled on November 8, 2007.

Surface paint on the toy's plastic face and construction hat contains high amounts of lead. The dolls were sold at toy and discount department stores nationwide from December 2005 to August 2007.

Children's Sunglasses Recalled on November 8, 2007.

The yellow surface paint on the sunglasses contains high amounts of lead. The sunglasses were sold at Dollar General stores nationwide from March 2005 to October 2007.

Halloween Themed Baskets Recalled on November 16, 2007.

Surface paint on the bat, pumpkin, and witch emblems attached to the baskets contain high amounts of lead. The baskets were sold at Hobby Lobby stores nationwide from August 2007 to November 2007.

Snow and Sand Castle Kits Recalled on November 21, 2007.

The Snow and Sand Castle Kits have a large plastic castle block maker in the kit that can crack at the handle during use, creating sharp edges that pose a laceration hazard to young children. The kits were sold at L.L. Bean stores nationwide, and in their catalog and on their website, from September 2007 to October 2007.

Paint Brushes Recalled on November 21, 2007.

The surface paint on the brush handles contains high amounts of lead. The brushes were sold in Discount School Supply's catalog and on their website from May 2004 to August 2007.

"Stuff Keepers" and "Bear" Pencil Pouches
Recalled on November 21, 2007.

The paint on the pencil pouches' zipper pulls contain high amounts of lead. The pouches were sold by school supply distributors in schools nationwide from September 1997 to October 2007.

2007
Children's Product Recalls

Jewelry

Jewelry

The following is a list of jewelry recalls issued between January 1, 2007 and November 21, 2007.

Butterfly Necklaces Recalled on January 18, 2007.

The pendant on the necklace contains high amounts of lead. The necklaces were sold at U.S. Toy Company retail stores and children's and small discount stores nationwide, and USToy.com, from August 2006 to December 2006.

Rachael Rose Rings Recalled on February 7, 2007.

The rings contain high levels of lead. The rings were sold at Family Dollar stores nationwide from December 2005 to January 2007.

Ultra Gear Bracelets Recalled on February 7, 2007.

The bracelets contain high amounts of lead. The bracelets were sold at U.S. Gift stores, dollar stores and small discount stores nationwide from July 2004 to January 2007.

Crimzon Rose "Kidsite" Necklace and Earring Sets Recalled on February 23, 2007.

The sets contain high amounts of lead. The sets were sold at Kmart stores nationwide from October 2001 to December 2006.

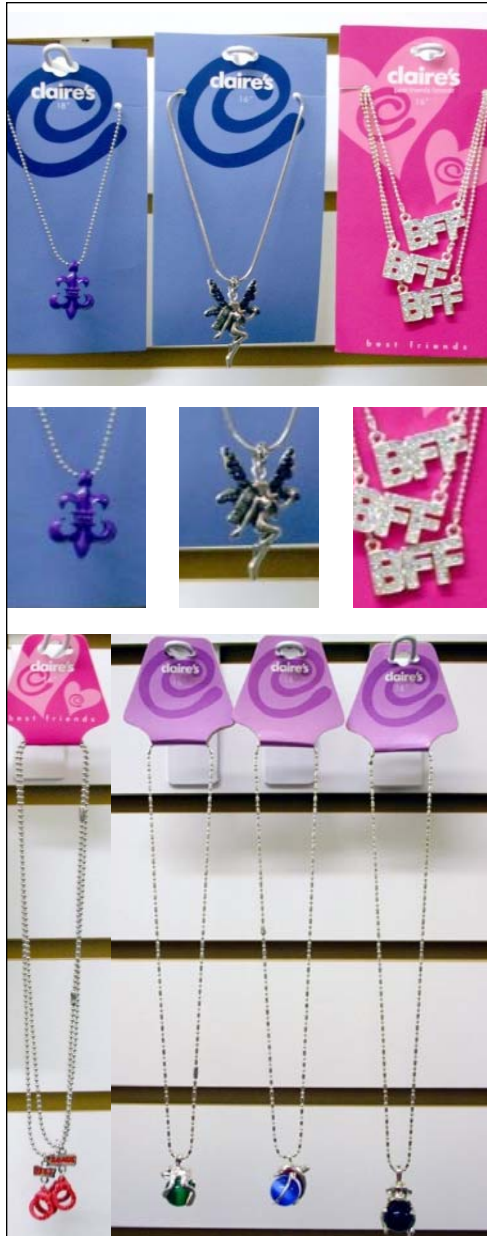

"Claudia Jublot" Rings Recalled on February 23, 2007.

The rings contain high amounts of lead. The rings were sold at Big Lots! stores nationwide from October 2004 to January 2006.

Mood Necklaces Recalled on March 13, 2007.

The necklaces contain high amounts of lead. The necklaces were sold at Accessories Palace in Lake Worth, Florida, and the Accessories Palace website from September 2006 to February 2007.

Necklaces Recalled on March 15, 2007.

The necklaces contain high amounts of lead. The necklaces were sold at Claire's retail stores nationwide from December 2005 to December 2006.

Mood Necklaces Recalled on March 15, 2007.

The necklaces contain high amounts of lead. The necklaces were sold at carnivals, amusement parks, family entertainment centers and small discount stores nationwide, and through Rhode Island Novelty's website, from August 2005 to December 2006.

Bracelets Recalled on April 3, 2007.

The paint on the metallic band beneath the decorative cover contains high amounts of lead. The bracelets were sold in vending machines located in malls, discount, department and grocery stores nationwide from November 2005 to March 2007.

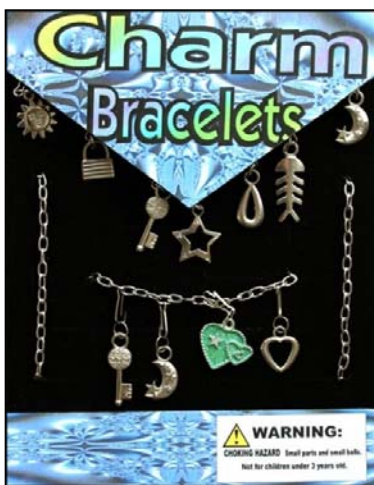

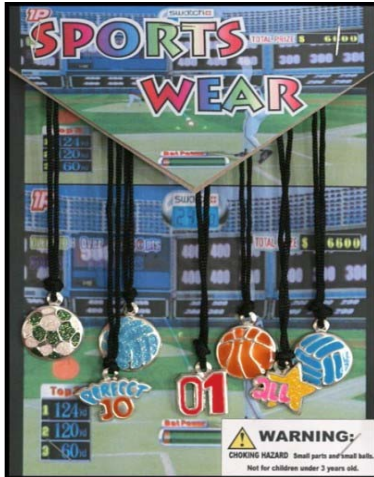

Metal Key Chains Recalled on April 3, 2007.

The key chains contain high amounts of lead. The key chains were sold at Dollar General stores nationwide from December 2005 through January 2007.

Religious Fish Necklaces Recalled on May 2, 2007.

The necklaces contain high amounts of lead. The necklaces were sold through Oriental Trading Company Inc.'s website and catalog from January 2005 to January 2007.

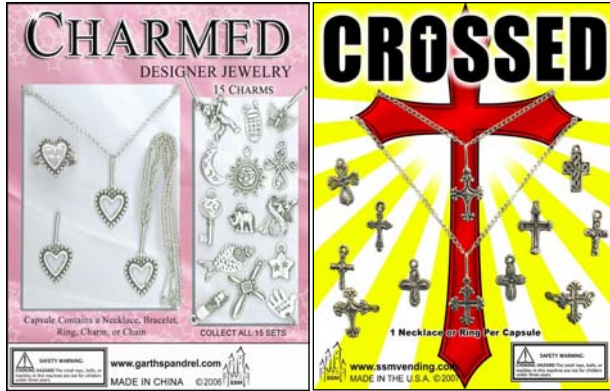

Necklaces and Charm Bracelets Recalled on April 17, 2007.

The paint on the jewelry contains high amounts of lead. The jewelry was sold in vending machines located in malls, discount, department and grocery stores nationwide from January 2006 to April 2007.

Children's Rings with Dice and Horseshoes Recalled on May 2, 2007.

The rings contain high levels of lead. The rings were subject to a July 2004 recall of 150 million pieces of children's metal jewelry but the firm placed the recalled rings that it had pulled from stores back into circulation. The rings were sold in vending machines located in malls, discount, department and grocery stores in the Baltimore, Maryland area from August 2004 to March 2007.

Necklaces, Bracelets and Rings Recalled on May 15, 2007.

The jewelry contains high amounts of lead. The jewelry was sold in vending machines located in malls, discount, department and grocery stores nationwide from February 2007 to March 2007.

Children's Turquoise Rings Recalled on May 15, 2007.

The rings contain high levels of lead. The rings were sold in vending machines located in malls, discount, department and grocery stores in the Baltimore, Maryland area from August 2002 to April 2007.

Metal Jewelry Recalled on May 31, 2007.

The jewelry contains high amounts of lead. The jewelry was sold at Limited Too and Justice retail stores nationwide from September 2005 to May 2007.

Silver Stud Earrings Recalled on June 12, 2007.

The earrings contain high amounts of lead. The earrings were sold at Kmart stores nationwide from October 2004 to March 2007.

Butterfly Necklaces Recalled on June 19, 2007.

The metal clasp on the necklace contains high levels of lead. The necklaces were sold at souvenir and gift stores nationwide from January 2006 to May 2007.

Essentials for Kids Jewelry Sets Recalled on July 5, 2007.

The sets contain high levels of lead. The sets were sold at gift stores, dollar stores, and small discount stores nationwide from August 2005 to April 2007.

Sleeping Beauty Crown and Cinderella Star Earring Sets Recalled on July 17, 2007.

The earrings contain high amounts of lead. The earrings were sold at Wal-Mart stores in Florida from February 2007 to June 2007.

TOBY and Me Jewelry Sets Recalled on August 22, 2007 and expanded on September 26, 2007.

The sets contain high amounts of lead. The sets were sold at T.J. Maxx, Marshalls, A.J. Wright, Cracker Barrel and Shopko stores nationwide from August 2006 to August 2007.

Divine Inspiration Charm Bracelets Recalled on August 22, 2007.

The bracelets contain high amounts of lead. The bracelets were sold at dollar stores and other small retail stores nationwide from March 2004 to August 2007.

Spinning Wheel Metal Necklaces Recalled on September 26, 2007.

The clasps on the necklaces contain high amounts of lead. The necklaces were sold at family entertainment centers, redemption centers, and small discount stores nationwide and at rinovelty.com from November 2006 to May 2007.

WeGlow Metal Jewelry Recalled on October 25, 2007.

The jewelry contains high levels of lead. The jewelry was sold at Dollar Tree, Dollar Bill$, Dollar Express, Greenbacks and Only $1 stores nationwide from December 2005 to August 2007.

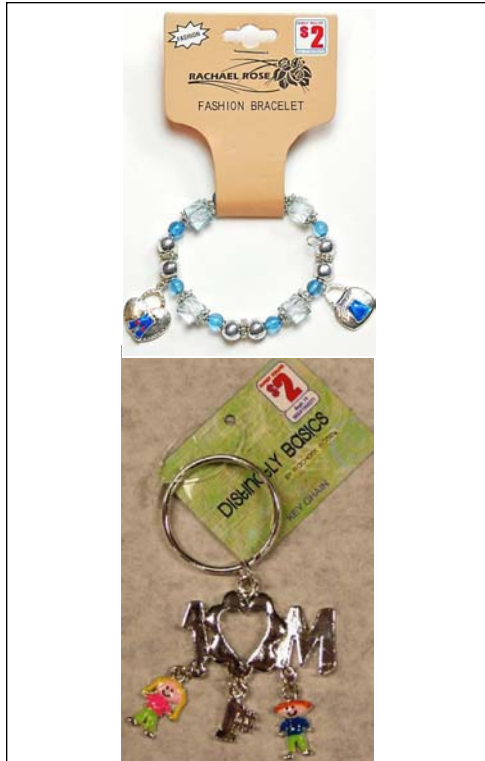

Key Chains Recalled on October 4, 2007.

The key chains contain high amounts of lead. The key chains were sold at Dollar General stores nationwide from June 2005 to August 2007.

Beary Cute, Expressions, and Sassy & Chic Metal Jewelry Recalled on October 25, 2007.

The jewelry contains high amounts of lead. The jewelry was sold at Dollar Tree, Dollar Bill$, Dollar Express, Greenbacks and Only $1 stores nationwide from December 2005 to July 2007.

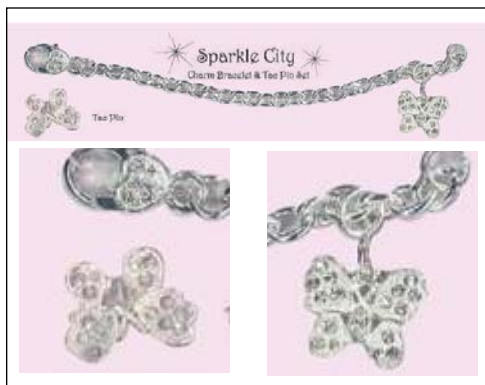

Rachael Rose and Distinctly Basics Jewelry Recalled on November 21, 2007.

The jewelry contains high amounts of lead. It was sold at Hobby Lobby stores nationwide from August 2007 to November 2007, and at Family Dollar stores nationwide from January 2003 to August 2007.

Decorative Stretchable Aqua Bracelets Recalled on November 21, 2007.

The bracelets contain high amounts of lead. They were sold at various dollar stores, liquidators, and schools as part of fundraising, nationwide from September 2003 to April 2007.

Sparkle City Charm Bracelets and Tack Pin Sets Recalled on November 21, 2007.

The jewelry contains high amounts of lead. There were sold at Big Lots! stores nationwide from August 2005 to April 2007.

29 Styles of Crystal Innovations Jewelry Recalled on November 21, 2007.

The jewelry contains high amounts of lead. It was sold at Michaels stores nationwide from April 2006 to September 2007.

La Femme NY Jewelry Recalled on November 21, 2007.

The necklace and earring sets contain high amounts of lead. They were sold at various dollar stores from October 2005 to April 2007.

"Awesome Boutique" and "Share the Love" Jewelry Recalled on November 21, 2007.

The jewelry contains high amounts of lead. It was sold at various discount and dollar stores nationwide from January 2005 to June 2007.

2007
Children's Product Recalls
Juvenile Durable Products

Juvenile Durable Products

The following is a list of juvenile durable product recalls, such as recalls for cribs and high chairs, from January 1, 2007 and November 21, 2007.

Graco Contempo Highchairs Recalled on January 18, 2007.

The highchair can collapse if it is not fully opened and locked into place from the storage position prior to use. The highchair was sold at Babies R Us, Toys R US, Target, Wal-Mart, Burlington Coat Factory, Shopko, Army and Air Force Exchange Services, USA Baby and various specialty retailers nationwide from December 2005 to December 2006.

Next Step Plastic Sippy and Tumbler Cups Recalled on January 22, 2007.

The impact of being dropped or banged can cause the cup to break into pieces, resulting in sharp or jagged edges that pose a laceration hazard to children. The cups were distributed by Mead Johnson Nutritionals as a promotional giveaway to physicians and consumers nationwide via direct mail from September 2006 to October 2006.

Infantino SlingRider Infant Carriers Recalled on March 22, 2007.

The plastic slider on the fabric strap can break, causing the strap supporting the carrier to release and infants to fall out of the carrier. The carrier was sold at Target, Babies R Us, BJ's Wholesale Club, Burlington Coat Factory and other retailers nationwide from July 2006 to February 2007.

Baby Trend Back Pack Carriers Recalled on March 27, 2007.

The stitching on the strap of the carrier can loosen or detach, causing the carrier to shift, posing a fall hazard to young children. The carrier was sold at discount department and juvenile products stores nationwide from March 2002 to November 2006.

Infant Bouncer Seats Recalled on April 18, 2007.

The tubular metal frame can break, posing a fall hazard to infants in the seat. The seats were sold at juvenile specialty stores and web retailers nationwide from September 2006 to March 2007.

Evenflo Embrace Infant Car Seat and Carrier Recalled on May 10, 2007.

When used as an infant carrier, the handle can unexpectedly release, causing the seat to rotate forward. When this happens, an infant inside the carrier can fall to the ground and suffer serious injuries. The product was sold at department and juvenile products stores nationwide from December 2004 to September 2006.

Fisher Price Rainforest Infant Swings Recalled on May 30, 2007.

Infants can shift to one side of the swing and become caught between the frame and the seat, posing an entrapment hazard. The swings were sold at discount department stores and toy stores nationwide from November 2006 to May 2007.

Song Lin Sleigh Round Cribs Recalled on May 31, 2007.

The assembly instructions for this crib direct consumers to assemble the crib with the mattress support in the highest position and do not indicate that the mattress support can be moved to a lower position. This poses a fall hazard to children who are able to sit or stand up in the crib. The cribs were sold at children's furniture stores nationwide from January 2005 to March 2007.

Simplicity Nursery-in-a-Box Recalled on June 6, 2007.

The assembly instructions provided with the cribs incorrectly instructs consumers on how to attach the crib's drop side. If improperly installed, the drop side can disengage from the crib, posing a fall and entrapment hazard. Additionally, the metal locking pins on the drop side can pop off, presenting a choking hazard. The crib was sold at department stores and children's product stores from August 2005 to May 2007.

Playskool Toddler "No Spill" Sippy Cups Recalled on July 19, 2007.

Young children can chew through the plastic spout of the sippy cup, which can pose a choking hazard. The cups were sold at CVS stores nationwide from September 2006 to April 2007.

Matelasse Crib Bumpers Recalled on July 24, 2007.

The decorative stitching on the bumper's edge can come loose, posing an entanglement hazard to young children. The bumpers were sold at Pottery Barn Kids stores nationwide from February 2003 to June 2007.

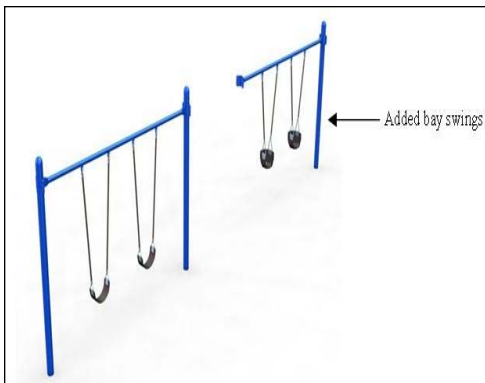

Sleepi Crib Foam Mattresses Recalled on August 23, 2007.

The crib mattresses are not properly sized, creating a gap, posing an entrapment hazard to young children. The mattresses were sold at juvenile product retailers nationwide and via the internet from September 2006 to May 2007.

Jubee Bunk Beds Recalled on September 4, 2007.

The bunk beds do not comply with federal safety standards and have wooden side slat supports that can separate from the bed frame causing the upper bunk to collapse. The beds were sold at specialty furniture stores nationwide and on various websites from December 2004 to April 2006.

Single Post Swing Sets Made by BCI Recalled on September 25, 2007.

The connection on the top beam of the swing set can break, causing the swing beam to collapse, posing a fall hazard to the user. A user or bystander also can be injured by the falling top rail. The sets were sold by BCI Burke or BCI Burke Company representatives from January 2000 to August 2007.

One million Simplicity Cribs Recalled on September 21, 2007.

The recalled Simplicity crib models include: Aspen 3 in 1, Aspen 4 in 1, Nursery-in-a-Box, Crib N Changer Combo, Chelsea and Pooh 4 in 1. The recall also involves the following Simplicity cribs that used the Graco logo: Aspen 3 in 1, Ultra 3 in 1, Ultra 4 in 1, Ultra 5 in 1, Whitney and the Trio. The drop side can detach from these cribs, which can create a dangerous gap and lead to the entrapment and suffocation of infants. The cribs were sold in department stores, children's stores and mass merchandisers nationwide from January 1998 to May 2007.

"Moderne" and "Loft" Cribs Recalled on September 4, 2007.

The crib slats can separate from the side rails, posing an entrapment and strangulation hazard to young children. The cribs were sold at juvenile furniture stores nationwide from October 2003 to June 2005.

Kolcraft Play Yards Recalled on September 27, 2007.

Twelve models of play yards are included in this recall. The play yards have a raised changing table with a restraint strap that forms a loop beneath the changing table, posing a strangulation hazard to a child in the play yard. In addition, one play yard also has a raised cradle that rocks back and forth. A child can roll and get trapped against the side of the cradle in the Contours 3-in-1 Play Yard. If that happens, a child can suffocate. The play yards were sold at retail stores nationwide from January 2001 to September 2007.

Frankenstein Tumblers Recalled on October 4, 2007.

The tumblers have surface paint on the center of the eyes that contains high amounts of lead. The tumblers were sold at Dollar General stores nationwide in September 2007.

Alpine Design Aluminum Water Bottles Recalled on October 4, 2007.

The surface paint on the water bottle contains high amounts of lead. The bottles were sold at Sports Authority from April 2006 to September 2007.

Starbucks Children's Plastic Cups Recalled on October 9, 2007.

If the cup is dropped, the colorful face on the cup can break off and leave small parts or sharp exposed edges that can pose a choking or laceration hazard to young children. The cups were sold at Starbucks stores nationwide from May 2006 to August 2007.

Bumbo Baby Sitter Seats Recalled on October 25, 2007.

If the seat is placed on a table, countertop, chair or other elevated surface, young children can arch their backs, flip out of the Bumbo seat, and fall onto the floor, posing a risk of serious head injuries. The seats were sold at Target, Wal-Mart, Sears, Toys R Us, Babies R Us, USA Babies, and various other toy and children's stores nationwide, and various online sellers from August 2003 to October 2007.

Wendy Bellissimo Collection Convertible Cribs
Recalled on November 8, 2007.

The bolts connecting the top corners of the crib can come loose, creating a gap and posing a serious entrapment and strangulation hazard. The cribs were sold at Babies R Us stores nationwide from July 2005 to October 2007.

Jetmax International "Home Trend Kids 9
Canvas Bin Boy's and Girl's Organizers"
Wooden Storage Rack Recalled on November 16, 2007.

The storage rack can tip over, posing an entrapment and suffocation hazard to young children. The racks were sold at Wal-Mart from August 2004 to July 2005 and Ollie's' stores nationwide from July 2006 to June 2007.

Slipcovers Used with Bobby Pillows Recalled on November 21, 2007.

Three slipcovers have zippers that can break posing a choking hazard to young children. Those three slipcovers have color combinations as follows: blue/green velvet, pink/orange velvet, and pastel blue velvet. They were sold at discount department stores nationwide from July 2007 to September 2007.

Four slipcovers have paint on the zippers that contains high amounts of lead. Those four slipcovers have color combinations as follows: pastel blue "Boa", bright pink velvet, navy blue velvet, and sage green velvet. They were sold at discount department stores nationwide from February 2007 to September 2007.

Flashing Pacifiers Recalled on November 21, 2007.

Flashing Pacifiers and 2-in1 Flashing Pacifiers with Whistle Necklaces have a nipple that can detach from the base, posing a choking hazard to young children. They were sold at various retail stores nationwide during July 2007.

2007
Children's Product Recalls

Clothing

Clothing

The following is a list of clothing recalls issued between January 1, 2007 and November 21, 2007.

Samara Brothers Starting Out Shirt and Overalls Recalled on January 5, 2007.

The coating on the snaps on the overalls and shirt contain high amounts of lead. The shirts and overalls were sold at Dillard's in October 2006.

Hooded Sweatshirts with Drawstrings Recalled on January 10, 2007.

The garments have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The sweatshirts were sold at various clothing stores, including Ross Stores & Gordman's from September 2006 to December 2006.

LL Bean Faux-Shearling Infant Booties Recalled on February 7, 2007.

A small metal zipper tab on the infant booties can detach posing a choking hazard to young children. The booties were sold in LL Bean catalogs, websites and retail stores in Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia from July 2006 to December 2006.

Toddler Pants Sets Recalled on February 8, 2007.

The zipper pull on the jacket can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The sets were sold at Meijer stores nationwide from October 2006 to December 2006.

Samara Brothers Boys' Heavyweight Outerwear Jackets Recalled on February 13, 2007.

The snap closures on the jackets contain high amounts of lead. The jackets were sold in major department stores and discount department stores nationwide from October 2006 to November 2006.

Hooded Sweatshirts and Windbreakers Recalled on February 13, 2007.

The garments have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The sweatshirts and windbreakers were sold at discount department stores nationwide from May 2003 to December 2006.

H & M Jackets with an Attached Compass Recalled on March 8, 2007.

The attached compass on these jackets can break, posing a choking hazard for young children. Additionally, liquid mineral oil, inside the compass, can be harmful if swallowed. The jackets were sold at H & M stores nationwide from February 2006 through October 2006.

N-Kids Brand Girl's Drawstring Flannel Pants and Pine Peak Blues Brand Boy's Drawstring Flannel Pants Recalled on March 8, 2007.

The garments fail to meet the children's sleepwear flammability standards. The pants were sold at Nordstrom's from July 2005 to December 2005.

Cobmex Youth Jackets with Drawstrings
Recalled on March 8, 2007.

The jackets have drawstrings at the waist and/or the hood. The drawstrings can catch on playground equipment, fences or tree branches, posing an entanglement and strangulation hazard for children wearing them. The jackets were sold at children's clothing and school uniform stores nationwide from January 2006 through February 2007.

Hanna Andersson Children's Loungewear
Recalled on March 19, 2007.

Hanna Andersson Children's Crossover Tee and Lounge Pant Sets and Cropped Johns fail to meet the children's sleepwear flammability standards. The clothing was sold in Hanna Andersson stores nationwide, and through the Hanna Andersson catalog and website from Summer 2004 through November 2006.

Disney Children's Footed Pajamas Recalled on April 17, 2007.

The Baby Einstein Caterpillar Sleepwear and Baby Einstein Duck Sleepwear fail to meet the children's flammability standard, posing a risk of burn injury to children. The sleepwear was sold at Disney Stores nationwide from April 2006 through May 2006.

RedEnvelope Children's
Sweatshirts with Drawstrings
Recalled on April 17, 2007.

Life is good Children's Sweatshirts have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The sweatshirts were sold at RedEnvelope.com from March 2006 through March 2007.

Payless Children's Clog Shoes
Recalled on May 2, 2007 with an Expanded Recall Issued on July 17, 2007.

Children's Airwalk Compel Shoes have plastic rivets used to attach the strap to the shoe which can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The shoes were sold at Payless ShoeSource and Pamida stores nationwide and Payless.com from January 2006 through June 2007.

Capri Pants Recalled on May 17, 2007.

Little Girls Capri Pants with Snap Roll Cuff have buttons inside the waistband which can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The pants were sold exclusively at Mervyns stores nationwide from December 2006 through April 2007.

Boys' Three-Piece Short Sets
Recalled on May 16, 2007.

The Samara Brothers Three Piece Short Sets have decorative fish buttons on the shorts and shirt which can detach, posing a choking hazard. The sets were sold through major department and discount department stores nationwide from April 2006 through March 2007.

Gardening Gloves Recalled on May 16, 2007.

The Troy-Bilt Budding Gardener Complete Gardening Set has a stamp-painted logo on the backside of the gardening gloves which contains high amounts of lead. The sets were sold at troy-bilt.com from February 2006 through January 2007.

Personalized Infant Long Johns Recalled on June 7, 2007.

The Red Baby Long Johns have metal snaps which can loosen and detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The long johns were sold through Personal Creations catalog and personalcreations.com from September 2006 through January 2007.

Party Hats Recalled on June 7, 2007.

The First Birthday Party Hats by Creative Expressions have foil fringe glued to the bottom edge of the party hats which can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The hats were sold at party and discount department stores nationwide from February 2005 through May 2007.

Jeweled Sandals Recalled on June 14, 2007.

The "Calypso" Sandals have jewel decorations on them which can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The shoes were sold at Nordstrom stores nationwide and on Nordstrom.com during February 2007.

Jackets Recalled on June 14, 2007.

The Pine Peak Blues Children's Jackets have a zipper pull which can detach from the jacket's zipper, posing a choking hazard to young children. The jackets were sold exclusively at Nordstrom stores from November 2006 through April 2007.

Hanna Andersson Sandal Clogs Recalled on August 3, 2007.

The Birchwood Sole Sandal Clogs by Hanna Andersson have a leather ankle strap which can tear or separate from the clog sole, posing a fall hazard. The shoes were sold through Hanna Andersson stores, catalog, and website nationwide from January 2007 through July 2007.

Girls' Clothing Sets Recalled on August 23, 2007.

The Basic Editions-brand Girls' Clothing Sets by Kmart have drawstrings at the waist which can get caught in a vehicle door and cause the child to be dragged, posing a serious risk of injury or death. The shirts were sold exclusively at Kmart stores nationwide from March 2007 through May 2007.

Youth Hats Recalled on August 29, 2007.

The toddler and youth Nylon Bucket Hats have a drawstring, posing a strangulation hazard to young children. The hats were sold exclusively at Bass Pro Shops retail stores nationwide from February 2007 through June 2007.

Hooded Sweatshirts with Drawstrings Recalled on August 30, 2007.

The Zippity Hoodie and Sherpa Full Zip Children's Hooded Sweatshirts have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The sweatshirts were sold at Independent retailers in Boston and Chatham, Mass. and Flagstaff, Ariz. from July 2007 through August 2007.

Cub Scouts Totem Badges Recalled on October 9, 2007.

The surface paint on the badges contains high amounts of lead. The badges were sold at Boy Scouts of America retail outlets nationwide from January 2000 through September 2007.

Payless Girls' Boots Recalled on October 18, 2007.

The guitar-shaped zipper pulls on each boot can interlock while a child is walking, causing the child to trip and fall. The boots were sold at Payless ShoeSource stores nationwide and Payless.com from August 2007 through September 2007.

Bath Robes Recalled on November 15, 2007.

The Bon-Ton Girls and Boys Bath Robes fail to meet the children's sleepwear flammability standard, posing a risk of burn injuries to children if the robe caught fire. The robes were sold by Bon-Ton, Bergner's, Boston Store, Elder-Beerman, Herberger's, Younkers, and Carson Pirie Scott stores nationwide and Parisian (Detroit area only) from September 2007 through October 2007.

2007
Children's Product Recalls
ATVs & Bicycles

ATVs & Bicycles

The following is a list of ATV and bicycle recalls issued between January 1, 2007 and November 21, 2007.

Arctic Cat Model Year 2007 90cc Youth Model ATVs Recalled on January 23, 2007.

The handlebar base, mounting bolts, tie-rod ends and tie-rod adjustment locking nuts may not have been tightened to the proper torque during the production process. Operating an affected ATV could cause components to loosen resulting in loss of steering control. This condition could result in loss of vehicle control, which could result in injury or death. The recalled vehicles were sold at Arctic Cat dealerships nationwide from August 2006 to January 2007.

Long Chang Lion 90cc Youth Model ATVs Recalled on May 3, 2007.

These ATVs by Stateside Powersports lack adequate tire labeling, tire pressure gauge, adequate stop engine switch and other safety requirements which could result in injury to consumers. The ATVs were sold at ATV dealerships and online nationwide from May 2006 through December 2006.

Warning Issued on Kazuma Meerkat 50 Youth ATVs on June 5, 2007.

The Kazuma Meerkat 50 Youth ATV has multiple safety defects including no front brakes, no parking brake, and a missing neutral indicator light. It can also be started while in gear. Additionally, the owner's manual does not contain complete information on safe operation and maintenance of the ATV. The ATVs have been sold by Kazuma dealers and Web retailers nationwide since 2003.

Ohalee FA-A70 Youth ATVs Recalled on September 6, 2007.

These youth ATVs lack front brakes and a tire pressure gauge, the date of manufacture is not printed on side of the tires, and the front suspension is solid and does not allow for travel. Additionally, the flag pole bracket is not the correct size, and the handlebars do not have padding covering sharp edges. The owner's manual does not contain complete information on the safe operation and maintenance of the ATV. These defects could result in an unsafe riding condition, posing a risk of injury to young drivers. These ATVs were sold by Odes Motorcycle Industry nationwide from June 2006 through December 2006.

Children's Trailer Bicycles Recalled on September 18, 2007.

The Novara Afterburner Trailer Bicycles can detach from the adult bicycle, posing a fall hazard to children. The bicycles were sold at REI stores nationwide from February 2007 through June 2007.

Baja Youth ATVs Recalled on November 21, 2007.

Three Baja Youth ATVs, the Baja 90, the Baja Wilderness 90 and the Baja Wilderness 90u lack a tire pressure gauge and flag pole mounting bracket, which poses a risk of injury to riders. The vehicles were sold at retail outlets, ATV dealerships, and online, nationwide from November 2004 to July 2007.

2007
Children's Product Recalls
Resource Guide

Guía de Recursos

Para más información sobre productos peligrosos de niños, por favor consulte a los recursos siguientes.

Oficina de la Procuraduría

www.IllinoisAttorneyGeneral.gov

Línea roja de productos retirados 1-888-414-7678

Provee información a consumidores de todos los productos retirados.

Comisión de los EE.UU. de Productos Seguros del Consumidor (CPSC)

www.cpsc.gov

Ofrece notificaciones electrónicas de nuevos productos retirados. También provee una lista de todos los retiros pasados y presentes para que usted verifique los productos que pueda tener en su casa.

Departamento de Salud Pública de Illinois

www.idps.state.il.us

Provee una lista de productos de niños retirados.

Niños en Peligro (Kids in Danger)

www.kidsindanger.org

Provee una variedad de información sobre la seguridad de niños y productos retirados.

Plomo Seguro Illinois

www.leadsafeillinois.org

Provee información sobre envenenamiento de plomo y la prevención de envenenamiento de plomo.

Retiros.gov (Recalls.gov)

www.recalls.gov

Provee una lista comprensiva de todos los retiros del gobierno de los EE.UU., incluyendo retiros de comida y drogas.

Administración Nacional de Seguridad de Carreteras

www.nhtsa.dot.gov

Provee información sobre retiro de asientos de autos de niños.