Re: NOTICE OF RESPONSE TO FOIA REQUEST
FOIA FILE NO.: P967271

Dear Carlos Ballesteros:

The Chicago Police Department (CPD) is in receipt of your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. In it, you request:

Under Illinois FOIA, please provide me with the 50 latest notices of denial for U visa certification sent by the Chicago Police Department.

CPD reviewed your request and is providing you with the responsive records within the parameters of your request. Please be advised that the Department has redacted certain information, as explained below.

Section 7(1)(b) exempts from disclosure “[p]rivate information, unless disclosure is required by another provision of this Act, a State or federal law or a court order.” 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(b). The FOIA, in 5 ILCS 140/2(c-5), defines “private information” as follows:

“‘Private information’ means unique identifiers, including a person’s social security number, driver’s license number, employee identification number, biometric identifiers, personal financial information, passwords or other access codes, medical records, home or personal telephone numbers, and personal email addresses. Private information also includes home address and personal license plates, except as otherwise provided by law or when compiled without possibility of attribution to any person.”

Therefore, personal addresses, personal telephone numbers, personal license plate numbers, driver’s license numbers, vehicle identification numbers, social security numbers, internal record numbers, SID numbers, FBI numbers, signatures, medical information, and employee user codes/numbers are exempt and were properly redacted pursuant to Section 7(1)(b).

In addition, dates of birth, medical information, victim names and identifying information, and other third party names and identifying information of persons such as friends, relatives, neighbors, and suspects who were never arrested or charged were also redacted as the public interest is not great while the privacy interests are considerable; therefore, this information is exempt and protected from disclosure pursuant to 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c) of FOIA. Section 7(1)(c) exempts from inspection and copying the following:

“[P]ersonal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy... ‘Unwarranted invasion of personal privacy’ means the disclosure of information is that highly personal or objectionable to reasonable person and in which the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information." Id.

You have the right to have a denial reviewed by the Public Access Counselor (PAC) at the Office of the Illinois Attorney General, 500 S. 2nd Street, Springfield, Illinois 62706, (877) 299-3642. You also have the right to seek judicial review by filing a lawsuit in Cook County Circuit Court.

Sincerely,

R Earnshaw
