Every resident of Illinois has constitutional rights regardless of their citizenship or immigration status. The following information is designed to help you understand your rights and responsibilities when interacting with law enforcement.

Your Rights
If you are confronted by a police officer or immigration agent:
• If you are not a U.S. citizen and you are carrying your immigration papers, you must show your papers to an immigration agent if the agent asks to see them.
• You have the right to remain silent and you are not required to answer any questions. You may tell the police officer or immigration agent that you choose to remain silent.
• If the police officer or immigration agent asks to search you, your belongings, your car or your home, you may refuse to consent to the search.
• The officer or agent may put you down if they believe you are carrying a weapon.
